A Prospective Bidder's Guide to Registering with the Illinois Department of Human Rights

The Public Contracts Unit of the Illinois Department of Human Rights (Public Contracts Unit) enforces provisions of the Illinois Human Rights Act and the Department's Rules and Regulations that apply to public contractors and eligible bidders.

The Public Contract Unit registers entities seeking to establish eligibility status for competitively bidding on state contracts. A prospective bidder can register with the Department of Human Rights via the Department's Vendor On-Line Registration website, or by submitting a properly completed and signed Employer Report Form (PC-1; First time applicant or Renewal) and a $75.00 registration fee in the form of a certified check, money order or cashier's check (no business nor personal checks accepted) payable to the Department of Human Rights. Once the transaction is processed and approved, the Department will issue a Department of Human Rights Eligibility Number to the prospective bidder. The Department of Human Rights Eligibility Number is valid for five years and demonstrates proof of registration with the Department of Human Rights. A prospective bidder seeking to enter into a contract with the State of Illinois, or any of its political subdivisions, may be required to provide its Department of Human Rights Eligibility Number.

To register on-line or to renew an existing IDHR Number, proceed to: <http://www2.illinois.gov/dhr> and scroll down to the bottom of the page and click on the Vendor On-Line Registration link. To download a PC-1 form, scroll down to First time applicant form or Renewal form, depending on your status, fill it out on line, print it, sign it, and mail with form of payment to:
