

Social Media Copy & Graphics to Promote Governor Pritzker's Signing of HB 121: Work Authorization Status

Three Generic Graphic Options

Two Copy Options

Copy 1: "Thank you Gov. Pritzker [tag] for signing HB 121[today], ensuring that anyone with federal work authorization, the legal requirement necessary to work in the United States, is protected from employment discrimination. Read more at [link]"

Copy 2: "With Gov. Pritzker's [tag] signing of HB 121, international workers who continue to choose Illinois as their new global home are protected from discrimination based on work authorization status. The IDHR celebrates the strengthening of the Illinois Human Rights Act and will work with employers to implement this change. Learn more at [link]"

Copy 3: Gov. Pritzker signed HB 121 into law today. It:

- ✓ Strengthens the Illinois Human Rights Act
- ✓ Prohibits discrimination based on work authorization status
- ✓ Aligns protections in Illinois with federal law
- ✓ Protects int'l workers who choose IL as their workplace

Two Quote Graphics from Bill Sponsors

HUMAN RIGHTSACT STRENGTHENED

“Everyone should be able to do their job without facing discrimination, no matter where they’re from or what their status might be. I’m proud to continue expanding the Illinois Human Rights Act to make our worker protections the strongest in the nation.”

– Representative Will Guzzardi

“Everyone should be able to do their job without facing discrimination, no matter where they’re from or what their status might be. I’m proud to continue expanding the Illinois Human Rights Act to make our worker protections the strongest in the nation.”

– Representative Will Guzzardi

HUMAN RIGHTSACT STRENGTHENED

HUMAN RIGHTSACT STRENGTHENED

“Illinois is a diverse state that offers opportunity to all. As the son of immigrants and representative of several vibrant immigrant communities, ensuring that everyone has their fair share of that opportunity and are free from employment discrimination is a top priority.”

– Senator Ram Villivalam

“Illinois is a diverse state that offers opportunity to all. As the son of immigrants and representative of several vibrant immigrant communities, ensuring that everyone has their fair share of that opportunity and are free from employment discrimination is a top priority.”

– Senator Ram Villivalam

HUMAN RIGHTSACT STRENGTHENED