

STATE OF ILLINOIS
SEXUAL HARASSMENT
PREVENTION TRAINING FOR BARS & RESTAURANTS

SEXUAL HARASSMENT IS PROHIBITED IN ILLINOIS

- The Illinois Human Rights Act makes it a civil rights violation “[f]or any employer, employee, agent of any employer, employment agency or labor organization to engage in sexual harassment.” 775 ILCS 5/2-102(D).
- The Illinois General Assembly finds that tolerance of sexual harassment has a detrimental influence in workplaces by creating a hostile environment for employees, reducing productivity, and increasing legal liability.
- The State of Illinois encourages employers to adopt and actively implement policies to ensure their workplaces are safe for employees to report concerns about sexual harassment without fear of retaliation, loss of status, or loss of promotional opportunities.

EMPLOYERS REQUIRED TO PROVIDE SEXUAL HARASSMENT PREVENTION TRAINING FOR ALL EMPLOYEES

- Every Bar and Restaurant in the State of Illinois is required to provide employees with sexual harassment prevention training that complies with sections 2-109 and 2-110 of the Illinois Human Rights Act (“IHRA”).
- All employees regardless of their status (i.e., short-term, part-time, or intern) must be trained.
- If an employer has an independent contractor working on-site with the employer’s staff, the independent contractor should receive sexual harassment prevention training.

WHAT INFORMATION WILL BE COVERED

- an explanation of sexual harassment consistent with the Illinois Human Rights Act;
- examples of conduct that may constitute unlawful sexual harassment;
- a summary of Federal and State statutory laws concerning sexual harassment including remedies available to victims; and
- a summary of employer responsibilities in the prevention, investigation, and corrective measures of sexual harassment.

WHAT IS SEXUAL HARASSMENT?

Under the Illinois Human Rights Act, “Sexual harassment” means any unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or any conduct of a sexual nature when:

- submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment,
- submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or
- such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

TYPES OF UNLAWFUL SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment. “You do something for me, and I’ll do something for you.” This means that a manager or supervisor may not tell an employee that in order to receive a promotion, raise, preferred assignment, or other type of job benefit – or to avoid something negative like discipline or an unpleasant assignment – the employee must do something sexual in return.
- Hostile Work Environment Sexual Harassment. “The air at work is full of sexual references and it is impacting me.” A hostile work environment may occur when unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or any conduct of a sexual nature has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

UNWELCOME BEHAVIOR

- Sexual conduct becomes sexual harassment when the behavior is unwelcome. Behavior may be unwelcome in the sense that the victim did not solicit or invite it, or in the sense that the victim regarded the conduct as undesirable or offensive.
- Welcome behavior can quickly become unwelcome behavior. What starts off as welcome behavior (consensual joking) can cross a line and become unwelcome behavior.
- Also, consent can be revoked at any time. When someone experiencing sexual harassment behavior says, “stop talking to me like this” it must stop. The perpetrator cannot use as a defense “Well you started it.” or “You were ok with it at first.”

WORKING ENVIRONMENT

- An employee's "working environment" is not limited to the physical location where the employee is assigned. The "working environment" extends to other worksites including off-site, mobile or moving worksites/locations.
- For example, a "working environment" includes the courthouse for a lawyer, or an off-site event for a caterer.

GENDER IDENTITY & SEXUAL ORIENTATION

- A person can be the victim of sexual harassment regardless of the victim's gender identity or the perpetrator's gender identity.
- A person can be the victim of sexual harassment regardless of the victim's sexual orientation or the perpetrator's sexual orientation.

EMPLOYEES AND NONEMPLOYEES AS VICTIMS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- The Illinois Human Rights Act protects Employees and now Nonemployees from sexual harassment.
- Employees include co-workers, supervisors and managers.
- Nonemployees include persons who are not employees, but are directly performing services for an employer, such as contractors or consultants (independent contractors or gig workers).

CONTINUED- EMPLOYEES AND NONEMPLOYEES AS VICTIMS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- Victims of sexual harassment can include Employees and Nonemployees when sexually harassed by other Employees or Nonemployees.
- Victims of sexual harassment can include not only the target of the sexual harassment, but also those Employees or Nonemployees who are Bystanders or Witnesses to the sexual harassment.

EMPLOYEES AND NONEMPLOYEES AS PERPETRATORS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The Illinois Human Rights Act prohibits Employees and Nonemployees from engaging in sexual harassment.

- Employees include co-workers, supervisors and managers.
- Nonemployees include persons who are not employees, but are directly performing services for an employer, such as contractors or consultants (independent contractors or gig workers).
- Employers are responsible for sexual harassment perpetrated by their Employees and Nonemployees against other Employees and Nonemployees.
- Employers are also responsible for sexual harassment perpetrated by their Employees and Nonemployees against customers/patrons.

CUSTOMERS/PATRONS AS VICTIMS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- The Illinois Human Rights Act protects Customers/Patrons from sexual harassment in “places of public accommodation,” such as stores, hotels, restaurants, theaters, museums, health clubs and hospitals.
- Employers that are also “places of public accommodation” are responsible for sexual harassment of Customers/Patrons when perpetrated by their Employees or Nonemployees.

CUSTOMERS/ PATRONS AND THIRD PARTIES AS PERPETRATORS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- The Illinois Human Rights Act prohibits sexual harassment of Employees and Nonemployees by Customers/Patrons and Third Parties.
 - Employers are responsible for sexual harassment of their Employees and Nonemployees by Customers/Patrons.
 - Employers are also responsible for sexual harassment of their Employees and Nonemployees by Third Parties such as sales representatives, vendors, and/or delivery persons.

SCENARIO: 1

SAM'S NEW JOB

Sam applies for their first job at a restaurant. Sam is interviewed by Adrian, the manager. Sam felt the interview went well but thought the question about whether Sam is single was strange. Sam is offered a position to wait tables. Sam notes that Adrian stares from a distance but believes Adrian is just watching Sam work. Sam starts to feel uncomfortable as Adrian is always near the door to the kitchen and bumps into Sam all the time.

CONTINUED-SCENARIO: 1 -SAM'S NEW JOB

One day Sam walks through the door and feels something on their butt. Sam turns and sees Adrian smiling and turns away quickly. Later that shift, Sam confronts Adrian about Adrian's behavior. Adrian says to Sam, "if you like it, your job can be much easier."

Is Sam being sexually harassed and if so, is the employer liable for Adrian's actions?

Yes

No

SAM'S NEW JOB

Correct Answer: Yes. Adrian's conduct toward Sam could be sexual harassment.

Rationale: Adrian's comments toward Sam could be sexual harassment given that they were sexual in nature and appear to have been unwelcome conduct. The restaurant is automatically liable for Adrian's actions because Adrian is in a management role and holds a position of authority.

SCENARIO: 2 BIG R'S BBQ

Customer's A, B & C are frequent customers of Big R's BBQ and they all come in for dinner one night. They are all seated at a table close to the kitchen's entry and exit doors. Customer C says to Customer B, "This is the perfect spot to watch the employees go in and out of the kitchen." Customer A says, "Just be nice and don't do or say anything inappropriate to the employees." Customer C says, "Why not, that's what they are here for." Customer B says, "Yes, let's make them work for the tips." As soon as Server comes over to take the order, Customer B says, "Excuse me darling, what's your 'special' tonight?" Customer B proceeds to place a hand on the Server's backside. The Server removes Customer B's hand and says, "do not put your hands on me again or I will ask you to leave the restaurant." Customer C says, "Sweetheart, you will have to work harder for your tip now."

CONTINUED- SCENARIO: 2 - BIG R'S BBQ

How could this situation be addressed?

- A. Assuming the Customers stop the unwelcome behavior, the Server could accept apologies from the Customers, alert the Owner of the situation, and proceed with service.
- B. The Server asks the Owner to have another server take the Customers' orders, and the Owner agrees.
- C. The Owner tells Customers A, B & C that their behavior is inappropriate and that if they continue to harass the Server or any of the staff, they will be asked to leave the restaurant.
- D. All of the above.

CONTINUED-SCENARIO: 2 ANSWER BIG R'S BBQ

The correct answer is D. Each option is appropriate to address the situation.

Rationale: If the Customers' conduct stops, the Server could accept their apologies and proceed. If the Server does not choose this route, the Server could ask the Owner for assistance, such as having another server take the orders. The employer is responsible for making sure their employees work in an environment that is free from harassment and discrimination, that employees know how to report sexual harassment when it occurs, and that inappropriate customer behaviors are corrected.

WHAT INFORMATION WILL BE COVERED

- an explanation of sexual harassment consistent with the Illinois Human Rights Act;
- examples of conduct that may constitute unlawful sexual harassment;
- a summary of Federal and State statutory laws concerning sexual harassment including remedies available to victims; and
- a summary of employer responsibilities in the prevention, investigation, and corrective measures of sexual harassment.

WHAT ARE EXAMPLES OF INAPPROPRIATE CONDUCT?

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature (sexual advances and requests for sexual favors). Examples include:

- Pressure for sexual favors or to go out on a date
- Deliberate touching, leaning over, or cornering another person
- Sexual looks or gestures or whistling at someone

CONTINUED- WHAT ARE EXAMPLES OF INAPPROPRIATE CONDUCT?

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature (sexual advances and requests for sexual favors). Examples include:

- Sending letters, telephone calls, e-mails, texts, or other materials of a sexual nature
- Sexual teasing, jokes, remarks, or questions
- Referring to another as a “girl,” “hunk,” “doll,” “babe,” “honey,” “tootsie”, etc.
- Actual or attempted rape or sexual assault

CONTINUED - EXAMPLES OF INAPPROPRIATE CONDUCT

More examples of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment include:

- Turning work discussions to sexual topics
- Asking about sexual fantasies, preferences, or history
- Sexual comments, sexual innuendos, or sexual stories
- Touching another employee such as their clothing, hair, or body

CONTINUED - EXAMPLES OF INAPPROPRIATE CONDUCT

More examples of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment include:

- Sexual comments about a person's clothing, body, or looks
- Kissing sounds, howling and smacking lips
- Telling lies or spreading rumors about a person's sex life
- Massaging neck, shoulders, etc.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN ONLINE ENVIRONMENTS

- Our conduct online and through social media can constitute sexual harassment even when it occurs “off the clock”, “off-site”, or even “out of state”.
- Online sexual harassment includes using e-mail, cell phone texts, internet posting, online comments, blog posts, and social media (such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram, YouTube, and Snapchat) to send communications of a sexual nature.

CONTINUED- SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN ONLINE ENVIRONMENTS

Examples include:

- Flirting and requests or demands to go on a date or have sex
- Sending inappropriate pictures or videos including sexually graphic material
- Using sexual language or comments including sexually offensive language
- Cyber stalking

SCENARIO: 3 BURGERS & FRIES

Customer A walks into a local Burgers & Fries to-go restaurant and places an order for a double burger and large chocolate shake. Employee X takes the order and turns to retrieve the food. Customer A says to Employee X, “will fries come with that shake?” Employee X immediately turns around and says, “Excuse me, what did you say?” Customer A repeats, “will fries come with that shake?” This time Customer A is winking and making sexually suggestive gestures and movements towards Employee X.

BURGERS & FRIES

How can Employee X respond to Customer A's comments and gestures?

- A. Employee X tells Customer A to stop making the remarks, looks and sexually suggestive gestures, stating that “the behavior is offensive and inappropriate” and reports the situation to the Manager of Burgers & Fries.
- B. If Customer A does not refrain from the unwelcome conduct, Employee X alerts their manager, who then tells Customer A to stop the behavior, or leave the restaurant.
- C. Employee X and Customer A get into a shouting match and start calling each other inappropriate names.
- D. Answers A and B.

CONTINUED-SCENARIO: 3 ANSWER BURGERS & FRIES

The correct answer is D. Both Answers A and B are correct.

Rationale: Employee X should ask Customer A to stop the sexually harassing behaviors and inform Customer A that the behavior is inappropriate. The Management of Burgers & Fries is responsible for making sure that their employees' work environment is free from sexual harassment and discrimination, that employees know how to report sexual harassment when it occurs, and that inappropriate customer behaviors are corrected.

SCENARIO: 4 SPRINGFIELD TIGERS

The Springfield Tigers softball team has just won the championship game and decides to stop at Mike's Pub for a few drinks to celebrate. Server comes to the table to take their drink orders and Teammates A and B start making statements to Server like "I bet you can quench my thirst. Wouldn't you like to cool me down? I'd like to drink from your fountain." Server replies, "Yes, I can cool you all down and quench all of your thirsts." Teammates A and B proceed and say, "how about you give us your phone number and we can take this to the next level." Server says "I don't think so. I am married." Everyone at the table laughs and proceed to place their drink orders. Teammate C turns to Server and says, "you know they're just kidding and didn't mean anything by it." Server replies, "I know, no worries" and leaves to retrieve the drink order.

CONTINUED- SCENARIO: 4 SPRINGFIELD TIGERS

Could the conduct of Teammates A and B toward Server be sexual harassment, and if so, what could be done?

- A. The conduct of Teammates A and B is not sexual harassment because the comments made by the Server show that the Server participated in the conversation and then told Teammate C not to worry about it.
- B. The conduct could be sexual harassment because the comments made to the Server were sexual in nature and may have been unwelcome to the Server.
- C. Server should report the conduct of Teammates A and B to the Mike's Pub manager, who should then inform Teammates to refrain from similar or like behavior or they will be denied service and asked to leave Mike's Pub.
- D. Answers B and C.

CONTINUED-SCENARIO: 4 ANSWER SPRINGFIELD TIGERS

The correct answer is D. Both Answers B and C are correct.

Rationale: Server's participation in the conversation with Teammates A and B does not necessarily mean that the conduct was welcomed by Server. The comments were intended as sexual in nature. If Server is uncomfortable, the comments should be reported to a Mike's Pub Manager, who should ensure that the Teammates refrain from the conduct or leave the Pub.

SCENARIO: 5 THE COFFEE SHOP

Employee A & B are co-workers at The Coffee Shop. They have been working together for almost two years. Employee B has recently become Facebook friends with Employee A. Employee B sends a message to Employee A through Messenger asking Employee A out on a date. Employee A ignores the message and does not respond. Employee B sends another message through Messenger to Employee A, this time stating, “This could be the best date you’ve ever had.” Employee A does not respond. Employee B sends a third message to Employee A and it read “I didn’t want to date you anyway. I heard you’re a slut.” Employee A becomes very upset by the message and decides to share the messages with the Manager, indicating that “Employee B’s comments have made it difficult to concentrate at work.”

CONTINUED- SCENARIO: 5 -THE COFFEE SHOP

What is the responsibility of the Manager in this situation?

- A. The Manager should conduct an investigation into Employee A's complaint.
- B. If the investigation reveals that the conduct occurred, the Manager should take corrective action, including taking appropriate disciplinary action against Employee B, if warranted.
- C. The Manager should ensure that all Coffee Shop employees are aware of the Coffee Shop's policy against sexual harassment, and how to report it.
- D. All of the above are correct.

CONTINUED-SCENARIO: 5 ANSWER THE COFFEE SHOP

The correct answer is D. All of the above are correct.

Rationale: The Manager is responsible for responding to Employee A's complaint by conducting an investigation putting a stop to the harassment. The Manager is also responsible for reminding employees of the Coffee Shop's sexual harassment prevention policy and employees' responsibilities to report sexual harassment to management.

WHAT INFORMATION WILL BE COVERED

- an explanation of sexual harassment consistent with the Illinois Human Rights Act;
- examples of conduct that may constitute unlawful sexual harassment;
- a summary of Federal and State statutory laws concerning sexual harassment including remedies available to victims; and
- a summary of employer responsibilities in the prevention, investigation, and corrective measures of sexual harassment.

WHAT CAN I DO IF I EXPERIENCE, WITNESS, OR BECOME AWARE OF UNWELCOME SEXUAL CONDUCT?

If you experience, witness or become aware of unwelcome sexual conduct, know that:

- You have the right to tell the person to stop. The initiating and participating persons must stop the unwelcome behavior upon request. If they continue the behavior or retaliate against you because you asked them to stop, they can be found to have violated the law by engaging in sexual harassment or retaliation.

CONTINUED- WHAT CAN I DO IF I EXPERIENCE, WITNESS, OR BECOME AWARE OF UNWELCOME SEXUAL CONDUCT?

If you experience, witness or become aware of unwelcome sexual conduct, know that:

- You have the right to report the sexual harassment. Several reporting options are available. The option you choose may depend on the nature and severity of the unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature. Persons who report sexual harassment or participate in investigations are protected from retaliation.

SCENARIO: 6 THE CATERING GAME

During an evening work catering event at a baseball game, Employee and Manager A stopped for a moment to watch the game. Manager A flirted with Employee and occasionally, nudged the Employee's leg. The Employee was startled by the Manager's behavior but did not say anything because of the Manager's position. After the catered event, Manager A texted, emailed, and called the Employee on a regular basis during non-working hours. The Employee told Manager A to stop texting and emailing, but the behavior continued. The Employee didn't report the matter further for fear of job loss as the family "bread winner."

CONTINUED- SCENARIO: 6 - THE CATERING GAME

On at least two occasions at different catering events, two other managers, Manager B and Manager C witnessed the behavior of Manager A and advised the Employee to “just keep your head down.” When the Employee and Manager A had a disagreement, Manager A warned Employee to be careful because of Employee's health condition and need for health insurance.

What are Employee's options to address this situation, and what are the responsibilities of Managers B and C?

- A. Employee should report the situation to the attention of the Human Resources Office, the Owner or any person designated by company policy to receive sexual harassment complaints.
- B. Employee may file a charge of discrimination based on sexual harassment with the Illinois Department of Human Rights against the Employer and Manager A.
- C. Managers B and C should report the conduct to the Human Resources Office, the Owner or any person designated by company policy to receive sexual harassment complaints and an investigation should be conducted.
- D. All of the above are correct.

CONTINUED-SCENARIO: 6 ANSWER THE CATERING GAME

The correct answer is D. All of the above are correct.

Rationale: Employee should alert the Human Resources Office so that an investigation can be conducted. Employee can also file a charge of discrimination. A charge of discrimination for sexual harassment can be brought against both the Employer and the individual who is engaging in the unwelcome conduct, in this case, Manager A. Managers B and C have the responsibility to report the conduct and cooperate with the investigation.

SCENARIO: 7 A BARTENDER'S DILEMMA

On a daily basis at the Sunset Bar, Servers B, C, D, and E called Bartender A “Gay Preacher” and a “pedophile.” Server B repeatedly grabbed Bartender A’s buttocks and pinched Bartender A’s chest. Manager 1 witnessed the behavior of Servers B, C, D, and E on several occasions, and sometimes joined in as Servers B, C, D, and E laughed at Bartender A. The actions taken by Servers B, C, D, and E occurred during work hours in front of different managers, including Manager 1, and in the employee break room and restroom.

A BARTENDER'S DILEMMA

Could the conduct of Servers B, C, D and E toward Bartender A be considered sexual harassment, and if so, are the managers liable?

- A. The situation is not sexual harassment because the conduct is occurring because of Bartender's A's sexual orientation.
- B. Whether the situation is sexual harassment depends on whether the Bartender and the Servers are male or female.
- C. The conduct could be sexual harassment because Servers B, C, D and E are engaging in unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature toward Bartender A.
- D. The managers of the Sunset Bar are not liable because Manager 1 only laughed but did not otherwise participate in the conduct.

CONTINUED-SCENARIO: 7 ANSWER A BARTENDER'S DILEMMA

The correct answer is C. The conduct could be considered sexual harassment.

Rationale: The conduct of the Servers toward the Bartender was unwelcome and of a sexual nature, and therefore, it could constitute sexual harassment, even if sexual orientation (e.g., “gay preacher”) is referenced. The gender of the Bartender and the Servers is not relevant to whether sexual harassment occurred. Because Manager 1 and the other managers are supervisory employees and in positions of authority, the Sunset Bar is automatically liable for the conduct toward Bartender.

REMEDIES AVAILABLE UNDER THE ILLINOIS HUMAN RIGHTS ACT

- After IDHR completes its investigation, the Complainant (the employee):
 1. May file a lawsuit in civil court, or
 2. May file a complaint with the Illinois Human Rights Commission (HRC) if IDHR found “substantial evidence” of a violation.
- Complainants who prevail in the HRC or Court may receive an order awarding remedies allowed by the Illinois Human Rights Act to make the Complainant “whole.”
- Remedies may include: back pay, lost benefits, clearing of a personnel file, damages, hiring, promotion, reinstatement, front pay where reinstatement is not possible, and attorney’s fees and costs.

- a summary of Federal and State statutory laws concerning sexual harassment including remedies available to victims; and
- a summary of employer responsibilities in the prevention, investigation, and corrective measures of sexual harassment.

IS MY EMPLOYER RESPONSIBLE FOR SEXUAL HARASSMENT?

Yes, employers are responsible for sexual harassment in two ways:

- Manager/Supervisor Harassment. Employers are strictly liable for sexual harassment perpetrated by its members of management regardless of whether the employer knew of the harassment.
- Co-Worker & Nonemployee Harassment. Employers are liable for sexual harassment perpetrated by an employee (co-worker) or nonemployees (vendors) only if the employer knew or reasonably should have known of the harassment and failed to take prompt corrective action.

WORKPLACE SCENARIO

The information provided in this training, including the scenarios described in the following vignettes do not, and are not intended to, constitute legal advice. Instead, all information, content, and materials available in this training are for informational purposes only. Participants of this training should contact their attorney to obtain legal advice regarding a specific legal matter.

SCENARIO:8 A DANGEROUS TRANSACTION

Customer was attempting to purchase a drink at the Local Bar and Grill. While passing the drink to Customer, Employee A intentionally brushed Customer's breasts. Customer recoiled and, in disbelief of what had occurred, handed Employee A money for the drink. When Employee A gave Customer her change, Employee A again brushed Customer's breasts, then laughed and made an unintelligible remark to another employee, Employee B. As Employee A started to make another gesture towards Customer, Customer moved out of Employee A's reach and fled out of the bar and grill visibly upset.

A DANGEROUS TRANSACTION

Who is liable for the treatment for Customer, and what is the best course of action?

- A. There is no liability for Employee A's conduct because Customer is not an employee of the Local Bar and Grill.
- B. Customer may file a charge of discrimination based on sexual harassment at the Illinois Department of Human Rights against the Local Bar and Grill.
- C. Employee B should report what they witnessed to a Local Bar and Grill manager. An investigation should be immediately conducted by the Local Bar and Grill, and appropriate disciplinary action should be taken against Employee A, if warranted.
- D. Both answers B and C are correct.

CONTINUED-SCENARIO: 8 ANSWER A DANGEROUS TRANSACTION

The correct answer is “D. Both answers B and C are correct.”

Rationale: The Local Bar and Grill is liable for the behavior of Employee A and is responsible for conducting an investigation and taking any appropriate disciplinary action, if warranted. Since Customer was not an employee of the Local Bar and Grill, Customer cannot file a charge against Employee A directly. However, Customer may file a charge of discrimination based on sexual harassment against the Local Bar and Grill because it is a place of public accommodation.

EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITIES

We will now discuss employer responsibilities and liabilities concerning incidents of sexual harassment in workplaces including their responsibilities to:

- Prevent the incidence of sexual harassment in their workplaces;
- Investigate incidents of sexual harassment in their workplaces; and
- Correct the incidence of sexual harassment in their workplaces.

EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITY - PREVENTION

1. Develop, implement and regularly communicate the employer's sexual harassment policy.
2. Provide training for managers and employees on sexual harassment prevention.
3. Ensure clear communication on how to report incidents of sexual harassment or conduct of a sexual nature.

4. Managers and supervisors should monitor their work environment to ensure the workplace is free of sexual harassment – supervisors should be aware of the conduct within their supervision.
5. Managers and supervisors must lead by example and model appropriate conduct – refrain from engaging in conduct of a sexual nature.
6. Managers and supervisors should conduct a sexual harassment climate check throughout the year -discuss the topic at a team or staff meeting, in-service day or as part of structured communication such as division/unit newsletters.

EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITY - INVESTIGATION

1. Immediately respond to a complaint of sexual harassment and initiate an inquiry or investigation.
2. Interview the complainant (victim) and take reasonable action to protect the victim from retaliation or experiencing further sexual harassment during the investigation.
3. Interview all relevant witnesses.

4. Interview the alleged perpetrator of the sexual harassment.
5. Document the investigation results and maintain the file as an employment record.
6. Take corrective action as appropriate.

EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITY – CORRECTIVE MEASURES

1. Take appropriate corrective disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment where organizational policy has been violated.
2. In situations where the conduct in question did not rise to the level of sexual harassment or a violation of policy, but is concerning or may be considered grooming behavior, consider counseling, training and closer supervision of the employee.
